The programme commenced after the prayer song.G. Kowshika of III B.A English delivered the welcome speech. RRC co-ordinator Mr.H.Santharam stated his points on the caption "celebrating Life for the common good" to the RRC members who are 100. He continued that HIV, the brain racking problem in the society. He informed to the participants the Government's introduction of Integrated Counseling Test Centre (ICTC) for people who have been suffering from HIV. Mr.H.Santharam had told the RRC Members that the advance of HIV in the infected body during the window period is both shocking and incredible. Hence, one has to be aware of leading a self-disciplined life. Mrs.P.Vimala the Positive Speaker in Women's Network conducted a game and drove home the thought that HIV could be acquired even by accident. The team canvassed the idea that it is better to be safe in the adolescent age than to regret later. The teams interacted with the members. The speakers had also in printed their ideas profoundly so that learners would pass on the same to the betterment of the public. The programme came to an end with the vote of thanks proposed by K.A.Subiksha of I B.A English.
